14.3 Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of those participating is assembled, or, if there is no such group, where the chair then is.

15 RESOLUTIONS IN WRITING

15.1 A resolution executed by all the Directors, or by all the members of a committee constituted under these Articles, shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Directors, or (as the case may be) at a meeting of that committee, which in every case was duly convened and held.

15.2 For the purposes of this Article 15:

15.2.1 a resolution shall consist of one or more written instruments or one or more Electronic Communications sent to an address specified for the purpose by the Secretary, or a combination of them, provided that each such written instrument and Electronic Communication (if more than one) is to the same effect;

17.1 A Director must declare to the other Directors any situation of which he/she is aware in which he/she has, or could have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly might conflict, with the interests of the Company unless it relates to a contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company or the matter has been authorised by the Directors or the situation cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest.

17.2 The Directors may (subject to such terms and conditions, if any, as they may think fit to impose from time to time, and subject always to their right to vary or terminate such authorisation) authorise, to the fullest extent permitted by law any conflict or potential conflict disclosed under Article 17.1. Provided that for this purpose the Director in question and any other interested Director are not counted in the quorum for any resolution at any board meeting pursuant to which such conflict or potential conflict is authorised and it is agreed to without their voting or would have been agreed to if their votes had not been counted.

17.3 A Director shall not, by reason of his/her office, be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he/she derives from any matter where the conflict or potential conflict has been authorised by the Directors pursuant to Article 17.2 (subject in any such case to any limits or conditions to which such authorisation was subject).

18.3 Subject to the provisions of the Act and always to the provisions of Article 12, a director shall (in the absence of some other material interest than is indicated below) be entitled to vote (and be counted in the quorum) in respect of any resolution concerning:

18.4 the giving of any security, guarantee or indemnity in respect of a debt or obligation of the Company or any subsidiary for which he/she has assumed responsibility in whole or in part under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of security;
18.5 any arrangement for the benefit of Directors or employees of the Company or directors or employees of any subsidiary which does not award him/her any privilege or benefit not generally awarded to the other persons to whom such arrangement relates.

18.6 If any question shall arise at any time as to the materiality of a director’s interest or as to the entitlement of any director to vote and such question is not resolved by his/her voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting, such question shall be referred to the person chairing the meeting (or if the Director concerned is the chair of the meeting to the other Directors at the meeting) and his/her or their ruling (as the case may be) shall be final and conclusive except in a case where the nature or extent of the interests of such Director has not been fairly disclosed.

18.7 Subject as otherwise provided in the Act or these Articles, a Director may be in any way, directly or indirectly, interested in any contract or arrangement or transaction with the Company or any group company and he/she may hold and be remunerated in respect of any office or place of profit (other than the office of auditor of the Company or any group company) under the Company, any group company or any other company in which the Company is in any way interested and he/she (or any firm of which he/she is a member) may act in a professional capacity for the Company or any group company or any such other company and be remunerated therefor and in any such case as aforesaid (save as otherwise agreed) he/she may retain for his/her own absolute use and benefit all profits and advantages accruing to him/her thereunder or in consequence thereof.

32 CALLING INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL MEETINGS

32.1 An International Council Meeting of the Company shall be called by at least 28 days’ clear notice.

32.2 The Company may give such notice by any means or combination of means permitted by the Act.

32.3 An International Council Meeting, notwithstanding that it has been called by a shorter notice than that specified above, shall be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed by a majority in number of the Members, being a majority who together hold not less than 90 per cent of the total voting rights.

33 NOTICE OF INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL MEETINGS

33.1 Every notice calling an International Council Meeting shall specify the place and the day and hour of the meeting.

However, all or any of the Members or persons permitted to attend International Council Meetings may at the discretion of the Directors participate in the meeting by means of a conference telephone or any communication equipment which allows all persons participating in the meeting to communicate effectively with each other throughout the meeting.

34.2 A Member so participating shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting and shall be entitled to vote or be counted in a quorum accordingly.

34.3 Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of those participating is assembled, or if there is no such group, where the Chair of the meeting then is.

35 QUORUM FOR INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL MEETINGS

If the Company only has one Member that Member shall be a quorum. In any other case an International Council Meeting shall be quorate when two thirds of the Chapters are represented by one of their Chapter Representatives. A Chapter Representative or his / her properly appointed proxy shall count for the purposes of the quorum. No business other than the appointment of the Chair of the meeting is to be transacted at an International Council Meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum.

36 CHAIRING INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL MEETINGS

36.1 The first business of the meeting at each AGM of the International Council and each International Council Meeting shall be the appointment of a person to be the Chair of the meeting. 36.2 The person appointed in accordance with Article 36.1 is referred to as “the Chair of the meeting”.

37 ATTENDANCE AND SPEAKING BY DIRECTORS AND NON-MEMBERS

37.1 Directors may attend and speak at International Council Meetings, whether or not they are Chapter Representatives.

37.2.2 otherwise entitled to exercise the rights of Members in relation to International Council Meetings, to attend and speak at an International Council Meeting.

38 ADJOURNMENT

38.1 If the persons attending an International Council Meeting within half an hour (or longer if those present and eligible to vote agree) of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present the Chair of the meeting must adjourn it.

38.2 The Chair of the meeting may adjourn an International Council Meeting at which a quorum is present if:

38.2.1 the meeting consents to an adjournment; or

38.2.2 it appears to the Chair of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.

38.3 The Chair of the meeting must adjourn an International Council Meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.

38.4 When adjourning an international Council Meeting, the Chair of the meeting must:
38.4.1 either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the Directors; and

38.4.2 have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.

38.5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the Company must give at least 7 clear days’ notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given):

38.5.1 to the same persons to whom notice of the Company’s International Council Meetings is required to be given; and 38.5.2 containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.

38.6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned International Council Meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

39 VOTING: GENERAL

39.1 A resolution put to the vote at an International Council Meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the Articles.

39.2 Every Chapter shall have one vote cast on its behalf by its Chapter Representatives acting together or by one of them (if only one is voting).

40 ERRORS AND DISPUTES

40.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at an International Council Meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.

40.2 Any such objection must be referred to the Chair of the meeting, whose decision is final.

41 POLL VOTES

41.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded:

41.1.1 in advance of the International Council Meeting where it is to be put to the vote; or

41.1.2 at an International Council Meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.

41.2 A poll may be demanded by:

41.2.1 the Chair of the meeting;

41.2.2 the Directors;
41.2.3 two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution; or
41.2.4 a person or persons representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the Members.

41.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if:
41.3.1 the poll has not yet been taken; and
41.3.2 the Chair of the meeting consents to the withdrawal.

41.4 Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the Chair of the meeting directs.

42 CONTENT OF PROXY NOTICES

42.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a “proxy notice”) which:
42.1.1 states the name and address of the Chapter Representative appointing the proxy;
42.1.2 identifies the person appointed to be that Chapter Representative’s proxy at the International Council Meeting in relation to which that person is appointed and sets out their position within their Chapter;
42.1.3 is signed by or on behalf of the Chapter Representative appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the Directors may determine; and
42.1.4 is delivered to the Company Secretary in accordance with the International Council Meeting to which they relate.

42.2 All Proxies must sit on the governing body of a member Chapter or hold an equivalent level of responsibility within a Chapter.

42.3 The Company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form and, subject to the Act, by a particular time and may specify different forms for different purposes.

42.4 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

42.5 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:
42.5.1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and
42.5.2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the International Council Meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.
42.6 If a Chapter has appointed two Chapter Representatives a proxy notice shall only be effective if neither Chapter Representative attends the meeting and if it is signed by both of them.

43 DELIVERY OF PROXY NOTICES

43.1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at an International Council Meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Company by or on behalf of that person.

43.2 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.

43.3 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

43.4 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor’s behalf.

44 AMENDMENTS TO RESOLUTIONS

44.1 An Ordinary Resolution to be proposed at an International Council Meeting may be amended by Ordinary Resolution if:

44.1.1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the International Council Meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the Chair of the meeting may determine); and

44.1.2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the Chair of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.

44.2 A Special Resolution to be proposed at an International Council Meeting may be amended by Ordinary Resolution, if:

44.2.1 the Chair of the meeting proposes the amendment at the International Council Meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed; and

44.2.2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.

44.3 If the Chair of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, then his/her error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.
RESOLUTIONS IN WRITING

45.1 A resolution executed by such number of Members as would have been required to vote for the resolution had it been proposed in an International Council Meeting at which all of the Members were present and voting shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at an International Council Meeting duly convened and held.

45.2 For the purposes of this Article 45:

45.2.1 a resolution shall consist of one or more written instruments (including faxes) or one or more Electronic Communications sent to an address specified for the purpose by the Secretary, or a combination of them, provided that each such written instrument and Electronic Communication (if more than one) is to the same effect;

45.2.4 the Members need not execute the same written instrument or Electronic Communication;

45.2.5 a resolution shall be effective when the Secretary certifies that sufficient evidence has been received by him/her that the resolution has been executed in accordance with this Article 45;

45.2.6 if no Secretary is appointed, the chair shall perform the functions of the Secretary under this Article 45;

45.2.7 the resolution must be accompanied by a statement informing the Member how to signify his/her agreement to it and the date by which this is to be done;

45.2.8 a proposed written resolution will lapse if it is not passed before 28 days from the circulation date; and
